

the
CINCINNATI
ETHICS
center

Workshops

FOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

We offer customized workshops that use your existing curriculum as a springboard for critical thinking about complex ethical issues. Through these interactive, dialogue-focused workshops, students sharpen their moral reasoning skills, engage with diverse ideas and perspectives, and connect classroom content to real-world issues.

Explore just some of our current workshop topics below.

English

- Macbeth: The Power of Persuasion
- The Great Gatsby: The Promise of the American Dream
- Things Fall Apart: Identity & Imperialism
- To Kill a Mockingbird: Courage in the Face of Injustice

Social Studies

- Moral Foundations of Democracy
- Nuclear Weapons as Deterrent
- Revolutionary War/Civil War: The Roots of Rebellion
- WWI/WW2: The Burdens of Power

Math & Technology

- Algorithmic Bias
- Mathematical Modeling and Accurate Representation
- Developments in AI
- Security in Digital Surveillance

Science

- Climate Change
- Gene Editing and CRISPR
- Pharmaceutical Development: Profits vs. Human Health
- Research on Human Subjects

CONTACT US

Christina Baulch
Director of K-12 Programs
christina.baulch@uc.edu

513-556-7876
cincyethics.org